Letters from the People.

Who got Camden's $1,000. who got Camaens and the Market States of the Intelligencer.

The Register is anxious to know who are the "original Jacob men of Wheeling." I propose giving the desired intormation, whenever the Public Printer's assistant, whenever the Baker, informs the public who received Mr. Camden's $1,000 for the pletting of Gov. Jacob in 1870, to who received Mr. Camuens $4.50, to the election of Gov. Jacob in 1870, to whose private bank account did it go, and what members of the State Executive Committee were consulted, or indeed-knew anything about its receipt, or the purposes for which it was used. FIFTH WARD DEMOCRAT.

Concerning Holters--How Circum-stances Alter Cases.

To the Editors of the Intelligencer.

The saleried official of the Public Printer's establishment, Hon. Lewis Baker, calls Gov. Jacob a "bolter, &c." I desire to ask said official when he acquired a love for regular nominees? I hope he does not forget his support of Samuel McClellan and Henry Conant on the Citizens' ticket a few years ago, and he cretainly has not forgotten his abuse of the contract of the cont certainly has not forgotten his abuse of A. J. Pannell and others of the Convenlast fall. Persons occupying glass ould not throw stones.

Island Democrat.

How Jacob Stands in Marshall. A business letter from Marshall county, received last evening, says:

"The announcement of Gov. Jacob as "The announcement of Gov. Jacob as an independent candidate meets with general favor. Many of the Democracy in Marshall will support him and all the Republicans, I think, to a man. Our County Committee acted prematurely in their call for a Convention. I was out on the B. & O. Road to-day, and find quite a number of staunch Democrats in lavor of Jacob. There is disaffection among them in Marion. They have independent candidates there. How will H. S. Walker feel with Camden defeated? That will spoil a fine job. I don't think the Camden men fully understood the favor that Gov. Jacob enjoys with the honest men of both parties."

NEW YORK, June 24, 1873., G. Adams, Esq., Cashier, Wheeling, W. V. J. Candom, Esq., Cashier, Will Fine protested with enclosure, which I return protested for non-acceptance and charge ice $1.56. The draft has been stolen, and the public interest would be served by arresting the man presenting it, as suggested in enclosed letter. It is probable the United States Post Office officials would like to take up the case. Very respectfully, F. C. Lathrop, Ass't Cashier.

A Thousand Majority for Governor Jacob in Preston. KINGWOOD, W. VA., June 27, 1872.

To the Editors of the Intelligencer. GENTS:-The announcement of Gov Jacob's candidacy created a considerable narry amongst the triends of the Camden Baker-Walker ring in this place, upon the receipt of the INTELLIGENCER on Tuesday evening. The party is very much dissatisfied with the nomination of Mr Camden, and hence I believe you can se nomination of Mr. down Jacob's majority in Preston at one thousand. The Republicans will vote for him to a man.

Three times three, for Honest John J.

Jacob. Yours, &c., Mac. Gov. Jacob All Right in Marion.

Mannington, June 27, 1872. To the Editors of the Intelligencer,

After a cool and dispassionate surve of the situation, not going off half cocked, but waiting patiently to observe the real sentiment of our people in relation to Gov. Jacob's announcement, permit me to say from my observation, which is pretty full, as I have seen persons from all parts of Marion, that there is a genera leeling both in the Democratic and Repti-can parties, in favor of the Governor's re-election. This feeling in some parts of the country is running almost to enthusiasm, irrespective of past political

Gov. Jacob is regarded here, among all parties, as an honest, high minded, uprigh Governor-a man that desires right to prevail, that looks to the future wel eing of our young and prosperous State. In lact his administration has proven be yand the question of a doubt that he is among the State officials, over the Treas urer of the State. God save us if w should lose him as our guardian of the treasury.

BELMONT COUNTY.

From the Barnsville Enterprise). SINGULAR CASE OF RECUSCITATION. A young man traveling along the road near the farm of Harvy McVicke, in Noble county, had his attention arrested by the strange actions of a small bird, which lit close beside him in the road, draft had been presented for acceptance draft had been presented for acceptance in the road, and the same and lamentable outeries for a time, then would fly away a short distance and light upon the ground, where it would appear to be fighting with something. Presently it would return and the same scene would be enacted over again. Finally the young man concluded that he would go and see what the bird was fighting with, as it appeared to be imploring assistance. When he arrived at the spot, he observed a bird's nest—it was empty. On examining a little further be discovered a large black snake which he killed, it then occurred to him that probably there had been young birds in the nest and the snake had swallowed them. Accordingly he took his pen-knife. tering its wines distractedly and utter-

That $5,000 Draft--Correspondence Relating Thereto.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK, WHEELING, W. Va., June 28, 1872. To the Editors of the Intelligencer:
In order that the public may under stand the particulars concerning the pre-sentation of a draft for $5,000, at the First National Bank of Wheeling, by Charles James Snyder, at his request I submit the following facts:

On the 20th inst. Mr. John C. Kirker, clerk at the St. James Hotel, came into the bank with a man whom he introduced as Judge Snyder.

Judge Snyder.

Mr. Snyder presented a draft purporting to be drawn by J. Rosenwald & Co., Los Vegas, on Herrmann Bros. & Co., New York, for $5,000, with the request that the forwarded for acceptance and negotiation. I told him I would send it forward and if accepted, and our New York correspondent saw fit to discount it, I would have the proceeds placed to his certification. have the proceeds placed to his credit.

About noon on the 28th Snyder called in and asked if the draft had been heard from. I replied that it had not, but we would likely hear by the next mail—to call after dinner. In a few moments the mail came in bringing back the draft protested for non-acceptance; our corres-pondent informing us that the drawees claimed that the draft had been stolen, and they instructed not to accept.

This information I gave to the police, whereupon Mr. Snyder was arrested, but as I did not feel warranted in making an affidavit, he was in a very short time dis charged by the United States Commis-sioner, before whom he was taken. I submit herewith the letters from New York concerning the case. G. Adams, Cashier.

FOURTH NATIONAL BANK, NEW YORK, June 24, 1879.

G. Adams, Esq., Cashier, Wheeling, W. V.

DEAR Sin—A draft, dated Los Vegas, N. M., May 20, 1872, drawn by John Rosenwald & Co. on us for $5000, and Rosenwald & Co. on us for $5000, and endorsed by Charles James Snyder, having been presented to us for acceptance through your bank, is hereby returned to you without our acceptance, for the reason that, according [to] information received from the drawers thereof, said draft with the letter enclosing the same, has been stolen from the mail, and acceptance and payment thereon has consequently been stopped by J. Rosenwald & Co's order to us. Our letters and telegram received on this subject point to the endorser, "Snyder," as the person, who endeavored to negotiate the stolen draft at Kit Karson already some weeks ago, without however having succeeded therein If your correspondent, through whom said draft was forwarded from Wheeling to you, were inclined to take proper step or the apprehension of that man Snyde through the police, there would, no doubt be a fair chance of securing the rea criminal, who has purloined said draft feloniously from the mail, and is now try ing to use it for dishonest purposes.

Yours Respectfully,
HERRMANN BROS. & Co.

Last Saturday we received notice of Messrs. Herrman & Co. that the stolen draft had been presented for acceptance through your bank, and that your bank the nest and the snake had swallowed them. Accordingly he took his pen-knife and cut the snake open, when he discovered five young birds in the interior, which he released. After they were brought to the air and light of day once more, the young man perceived there was yet life in them, and in about fitteen or twenty minutes they appeared to be entirely recovered. He then returned the birds to the nest, and the parent bird commenced earing for them as though nothing, had happened.
